

PRESS RELEASE

The Director General of Police, Meghalaya, Shri. Chandranathan, IPS graced the occasion on felicitation of newly promoted MPRO officers as Chief Guest on 08/08/2019 at 11:00 AM in MPRO Headquarters, Golflink, Shillong in the presence of Shri. S.S Kynjing, IPS Dy. Inspector General of Police (Admn/F&ES/Commn) Meghalaya, Shillong and other senior officers. In the historic event, a total of 90 (ninety) officers were promoted which included 10 (ten) Inspectors, 30 (thirty) Sub-Inspectors and 50 (fifty) Asstt. Sub-Inspectors. The promotion will boost the morale of the organization and motivate the personnel to deliver more. Director General of Police in his speech congratulated all the promoted officers and appealed to them to be more sincere in their work as with promotion more responsibility and accountability will be in their shoulders. Director General of Police also directed MPRO to start a small R&D team in order to facilitate research in modern days communication technology so that the organization can cope with the challenges of today's life and become an asset to Meghalaya Police.

The function ended with a vote of thanks from the Superintendent of Police (C), Meghalaya, Shillong.
